4.a. Rationale

Environmental Health Criteria 268 (2005) is a comprehensive document that provides a detailed assessment of the health risks associated with exposure to certain chemicals. The document is organized into several sections, including an introduction, a description of the chemicals, a review of the available data, and a discussion of the health effects. The document also includes a summary of the findings and recommendations for further research. The document is written in a clear and concise style, making it accessible to a wide range of readers. The document is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the health effects of chemicals.
